Cowley Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Hansomer visited Pincher Creek during the week.

W. C. Robinson paid a business trip up to The Pass on Wednesday.

Walter S. Knight has returned from a three month's holiday trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kwan left last week for the east on a two month's visit.

Mrs. Donald, of Calgary, is making a short stay in Cowley with the doctor.

BORN—On Sunday, August 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Laurence Cleland, a daughter.

A large number of ranchers visited Lundbreck on Monday to hear the cattle-stealing cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Askew and family, from Adron, pursued through on a fishing and camping trip.

Miss Lottie Morgan, of Coleman, has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Morgan, for a few days.

W. T. Biddy (Wal) was a visitor here and Lundbreck on Monday, having come in from North Fork, where he has the position of chief park inspector.

W. S. Gray, of the well-known law firm of McLeod & Gray, Macleod, was in Lundbreck on Monday representing the stockmen, Messrs. Neilson & McMillan, in the cattle-stealing cases brought by them against three ranchers.

The farmers are having fine weather for haying. There has been no rain, excepting a small shower, for the last two weeks, and the grain is taking on a fine golden color. Cutting will be on in a week's time.

Lieut. W. Sharp took a hurried trip home one day last week to say a last farewell. He was expected to leave Monday, but was further detained. The boys are holding themselves in readiness to go any day this week when called. Troops 1 and 2 from Pincher squadrons are to go, and only the junior officers.

Children's parties seem to be all the craze in town these days. Mr. Morrison gave a birthday party for little Isabelle last week. This week a similar party took place on Mrs. Melvor's. They are going through the last week of the holidays with a jolly good time, as school starts on Monday, when it will be hurrah for work and pleasure stopped.

Less than a year ago we heard one man say: "This will never do. We must have a new minister; this one draws to congregations whatever," and accordingly a new minister was secured. At first the church was crowded, and the minister got great praise. The sermons are equally as good now, but the attendance has fallen off. What is the reason? Let me tell you one: That same man who laid so many complaints had not been in church for perhaps six months before, and only once or twice since, and he will soon be thinking it time for another change. How can a man preach to people who won't attend church or won't encourage others to go. Just try filling the seats for a while and see if you will need to change ministers. Everyone needs encouragement.

Municipal By-Elections August 30th

Offices of Mayor, Two Councillors and Two School Trustees To Be Filled

The regular meeting of the Blairmore town council was held last night. Deputy Mayor Beebe and Councillors Ross, Dutil and Bartlett being present.

The minutes of last regular meeting were read and adopted. A communication from the Rocky Mountain Cement Co. regarding the lighting system was read and referred to the light committee.

The Sun Life Assurance Co., of Montreal, drew attention of the council to interest coupons amounting to $1307 due on August 4th.

The following accounts were passed:

Medical Health Officer $62.50.
James Graham $2.00.
P. Mancini $8.00.
E. Hinds 75 cents.

Rocky Mountain Cement Co. $0.90.

J. Montebelli $1.00.

W. A. Beebe $20.00, July rent.

Alberta Government Telephone $23.05.

Blairmore Enterprise $84.25.

D. A. Sinclair $6.35.

Blairmore Hardware Co. $7.60.

Representation was made by the hotels requesting a reduction in the water rates.

Dutil-House—That the hotel people be advised that the hotel water rates have been computed according to the rest of the town, and as the water system is not now paying its way we do not see our way clear to make a general reduction at the present time. Carried.

On motion By-Law 44, to appoint a returning officer for the forthcoming municipal by-election, received its three readings and was finally passed. W. Joyce was appointed returning officer. Monday, August 23rd was the date set for nominations, and Monday, August 30th for elections. There are three vacancies on the council to be filled, that of mayor and two councillors, as well as two vacancies on the school trustee board.

The resignation of L. W. Krebs as mayor was on motion accepted.

The secretary was instructed to write the superintendent in charge of this division of the R.N.W.M.P., requesting him that as we have a paid police officer in the Town of Blairmore, and as the revenue for said town is quite small enough, he instruct his officers here to not interfere with police work inside the limits of the town, until called upon by our town police, and that should occasion require at any time we should be only too pleased to avail of their services.

No other business the meeting adjourned at 9.50.

Teacher is Charged With Infanticide

Charged with having murdered her one-day-old child by deliberately suffocating it as it lay on her breast at the General Hospital on July 6, a woman, around whose person there is considerable mystery, but whose name is said to be Jessie Kimball, a school teacher employed near Revelstoke, appeared in the police court this morning and was remanded until next Tuesday on the application of her counsel, Mr. I. I. Robinson.

Little is known of the young woman, who is not much more than a girl, and looked very youthful as she stood behind the bars in the prisoners' dock at the police court this morning. On the early morning of July 5 she stumbled into the admitting office at the General Hospital and explained her condition. She was placed in a semi-public ward and two hours later a child was born. There was nothing in the appearance of the girl to excite suspicion and the following day the infant was given to her to nurse. The nurses in the ward did not suspect anything wrong, but when, half an hour later, one of them went to take the baby up again it was dead, and its face had already assumed a purple hue.

An inquest was held, and it was found that the little one had died of suffocation. A post-mortem examination on the body, it is said, did not reveal the presence of food in the stomach.

The coroner was not satisfied that the child had died as a result of an accident such as sometimes occur when a young mother first undertakes to nurse her offspring. The matter was laid before the attorney-general's department and the police, who decided to further investigate the case, and as she left the hospital on Tuesday afternoon Detectives McArthur and Inish placed her under arrest and conveyed her to the police station.

This morning a charge of murder was laid against her, and Mr. Robinson appeared on her behalf and asked for a remand until next Tuesday, to which Crown Prosecutor R. E. Maitland agreed.

The girl is very uncommunicative regarding her antecedents, and there is some doubt as to Jessie Kimball being her real name. She is apparently without friends in the city. It is stated that before coming to Revelstoke she lived at Kamloops. She came originally from Montreal—Vancouver Province, Aug. 6. It is thought probable that the girl came from across the Rockies, probably from the province of Alberta, to give birth to her child amongst strangers in Vancouver.

Blairmore Red Cross

NOTICE—The Tuesday evening meeting, which has been somewhat discontinued for the last two weeks, will be resumed on Tuesday next, and it is hoped with a good attendance.

The Harbick Concert Party, besides being a real treat to all who attended, netted the Red Cross Fund $18.10 over and above all expenses.

This Friday and Saturday, the ladies of the local society are serving refreshments at the Sanatorium Tennis Tournament. Members are requested to be on hand to help.

Lundbreck Stockmen Unable to Prove Cattle-Stealing Charge

The three cattle stealing cases at Lundbreck all resulted in acquittals. Mr. Justice Biddell tried the cases. Information was sworn out by Neil Neilson, of the stock firm of Neilson & McMillan.

It appeared by the evidence that these gentlemen did not know within a few dozen just how many cattle they had and as to telling how many of each different kind they were at sea.

Accused showed that while they admitted killing on Mr. Neilson's grazing land, the cattle killed were not the property of Messrs. Neilson & McMillan, but their own. The judge therefore believed their story, and they were each honorably acquitted.

The informant was represented by W. S. Gray, of the firm of McLeod & Gray, barristers, Macleod. The three accused were defended by L. I. Putnam, barrister, Blairmore.

At Pincher Creek last week the police arrested three poor individuals found resting in an unoccupied shack. The combined wealth of the trio amounted to $26.45. On this the authorities appropriated $20.00. The men had a few dollars and were seeking employment. They did not want to part with their only coin at a boarding or lodging house until a means of livelihood was in sight. In poverty a crime?

Sunday Baseball Established Legal

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—The remaining charges against the Ottawa Baseball club, viz., of employing men to play Sunday baseball, and of conducting a ball game on the Sabbath, contrary to the Dominion Lord's Day Act, were dismissed in the Hall Police Court. Magistrate Goyette, who had thrown out three other cases last week, declared that the defence had proved to his satisfaction that they were enjoying privileges which had been a custom in Quebec for many years. He ruled that the provincial act, sanctioning Sunday baseball, was valid; also referring to the fact that no attempt had been made to stop Sunday golf or tennis. In addition, he said, the prosecution had failed to prove that the Ottawa club had conducted the game in question for anything other than a public amusement, with no evidence to show that there had been a financial gain. No appeals were entered. Sunday baseball will thus be continued.

C.P.R. Takes Over Allan Steamship Lines

Montreal, Aug. 9.—The steamship business of the Canadian Pacific Railway company and the Allan line were organized into a new corporation at a meeting held today for that purpose, the first annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited. On October 1 this year the new corporation will take over both lines. George M. Bosworth, vice-president of the C.P.R., is the chairman of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited, and H. Maitland Kersey is to be managing director, with his office in London, England. The new company is to take over all the ocean steamships now operated by the C.P.R. and the Allan line, and the head office will be in Montreal.

Messrs. G. M. Bosworth, L. G. Ogden, F. W. Hearty, K.C., vice-president of the C.P.R. company, and F. E. Merditt were directors in attendance at the organization meeting today.

When You're Through

The preacher's discourse was dry and long, and the congregation gradually melted away. The sexton tipped up to the pulpit and slipped a note under the Bible.
It read:
"When you are through, will you please turn off the lights, lock the door and put the key under the mat?"

GOOD REASON FOR HIS ENTHUSIASM

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other torp of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially in the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all dealers.

COSTLY TREATMENT.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Wheatlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers.

Blaimore, Alta., Fri., August 13, 1915

Sir Robert Borden has met with a reception in Europe to which he is justly entitled. The freedom of the city of London is the highest distinction that can be bestowed upon a public man. The Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor of France is another distinction of the highest type, probably second only to the Knighthood of the Garter. Sir Robert Borden has received both of these distinctions.

It is probable that the French government bestowed the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor upon Sir Robert chiefly because he is the Premier of Canada. It is probable that the City of London gave him its freedom for the same reason. The fact is, however, that Sir Robert is fortunate in occupying a position that enables him at the critical moment to receive honors that have never been bestowed upon a former Canadian Premier.

Canada is fortunate in having a man at the present time who can wear these distinctions, these honors, with an appropriate dignity. Canada has never had a Prime Minister who could wear more gentlemanly grace wear the high dignities that have been bestowed upon him. We are fortunate as a nation in having such a man represent us on an occasion requiring a leader of exceptional dignity, culture and merit.—Winnipeg Post.

Germany's Blunders

A year ago German diplomacy permitted Austria-Hungary to make the declaration of war against Serbia which has since drenched Europe in blood. Long before this momentous step was taken, German diplomacy had alienated Russia's longstanding friendship and driven France into an alliance with the great Slav power.

Not satisfied with this triumph of stupidity, German diplomacy then made Great Britain into a defensive ally, standing with France and Russia; and had likewise made Japan (Great Britain's ally in the Far East).

Since the war began, German diplomacy has managed to destroy its own Alliance and array Italy on the side of the allies. It has left the Teutonic alliance without an active friend in the world except Turkey and without a sympathizer except Sweden, whose Pro-German tendencies are due less to love of Kultur than fear of Russia.

Looking over the record, it is impossible to find an instance in which Berlin has missed an opportunity to blunder. Every mistake which diplomacy could make has been made by the German Foreign Office in the long train of events leading up to the war and in the events that have followed the beginning of hostilities.

To any mind except the Prussian mind it ought to be apparent that Germany has all the enemies that one country can afford to have, however great territorial gains may be to sacrifice their lives on the field of battle. To any mind except the Prussian mind it ought to be apparent that this conflict cannot continue forever, and that to be isolated in time of peace will be hardly less disastrous to Germany than to be isolated in time of war.

And yet this same nation is doing all it can to pick a quarrel with the only powerful nation on earth that is friendly. German diplomacy will blunder again.—Toronto News.

The Kaiser's

Withered Arm

The Kaiser's left arm has been withered from childhood; but the device which he uses to conceal the defect have been so successful that it generally passes unnoticed. He has practiced his posing so well that the ordinary onlooker would never think of asking why it is that he always gestures with his right hand and keeps the left well out of sight. He rests it on the hilt of his sword, and it is covered by his coat in a manner that looks quite natural.

And it is not generally known that the affliction is due to a blunder of the doctors who assisted at the Kaiser's birth. When he was born little hope was entertained that he would live. The signs of life were very faint, and artificial means had to be used before he could breathe. When he was three days old he was able to move the muscles, and then it was discovered that the left arm was paralyzed. The doctors examined it and found the elbow out of joint. But the child was so weak that they feared the shock of re-setting might cause collapse of the heart. Some months later they tried to remedy the defect, but to no avail. The arm has never grown; it has remained stunted and withered. (German physicians attribute much of the Kaiser's bad temper and treachery to the fact that he has constantly brooded over this physical defect. And it has always been the common talk of Berlin that he used to browbeat his mother because of it.

The Scope of the Red Cross

The scope of the Red Cross is practically unlimited. The idea of universal charity which actuates this Samaritan Society is capable of indefinite extension. The war has been like an immense microscope which has revealed Red Cross opportunities in increasing magnitudes.

The primary intention of the founder of the Red Cross was to give the wounded lying on the battlefields immediate attention.

The Red Cross now aims not only to succor the wounded in the actual firing zone; at also to nurse them back to complete health in base and convalescent hospitals. It has further extended its scope to include prisoners of war, and it is now beginning to see that all misery occasioned by the war is even in its most ultimate effects is a proper object of Red Cross activity.

The war executive of the British Red Cross has lately decided that the care of those totally incapacitated by the war is that property devolves on the Red Cross, provided that the funds permit. It is thus evident that though armies may disband, the Red Cross can never disband. It has become one of the most fundamental institutions of modern civilization. Its success and prosperity are the supreme test of our humanitarianism. The state of the Red Cross treasury is a decisive index of our capacity for universal sympathy.

The immense task which confronts the Red Cross should stimulate the public to endow this worthy society in a permanent way. The movement on foot in a great many Canadian towns to provide the Red Cross with a certain annual income is a policy which should be encouraged and developed. A flourishing Red Cross is as much a criterion of national greatness as a triumphant army.

New Text Book

On Agriculture

Edmonton, Aug. 9.—The department of education has had prepared under its direction a new text-book on agriculture.

Hon. J. R. Boyle, minister of education, has announced that the government will distribute free to the pupils of the public schools in the province the text-book which has been prepared by Mr. James McCall, M.A., LL.B., and is being published by the Educational Book Co.

The need of such a text book has been felt for some time in the schools in this province. The program of studies requires an elementary course in agriculture to be taught in every public school, and the teacher up to the present time has been under a heavy handicap by reason of there being no text book published in Canada upon agriculture suitable for public school children.

The preparation of this text-book was undertaken by Mr. McCall under the direction and with the assistance of a committee appointed by the minister, consisting of W. G. Carpenier, B.A., superintendent of schools, Edmonton; A. E. Howes, B.S.A., Dean of Faculty of Agriculture, University of Alberta, Edmonton, and J. R. Tuck, M.A., of the Camrose Normal school staff.

The new text-book is splendidly illustrated and well suited for public school purposes, and for Alberta students. It will cost a considerable amount of money to supply this text book free to all the public school children of the province, but Mr. Boyle is of the opinion that good value will be obtained for the expenditure in educational results. This being an agricultural province it is highly important that this subject be well taught in all our public schools.

A Tongue Twister

Try and say this as fast as you can. I wish I could see your face while you are doing it.
 If a Hottentot taught a Hottentot to talk are the two could together, Ought the Hottentot to be taught to say "laugh" or "laughed" or what ought to be taught her?
 If a Hoot and took a Hottentot to be taught by a Hottentot tooter, Should the tooter get hot if the Hottentot toot too?

Steve Humble was at South Fork this week, where he had to board up the doors and windows of his ranch-house to guard against petty-thieving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton left Bellevue for Calgary, where they visited their son Isaac before he leaves for the Old Country with the Calgary contingent.

Haddad's team got frightened one day this week and got away with the driver, breaking up the wagon and destroying quite a quantity of fruit, etc. The driver received a severe shaking up.

Major Hay, of the Salvation Army, who is in charge of this division, was here on Friday and held a meeting in the Methodist church. The attendance was large, and all enjoyed the interesting address delivered by the major.

A severe electric storm struck Bellevue on Saturday evening and did considerable damage. The Methodist church was hit and a fire started near the chimney by the lightning. Rev. Cook received a severe shock while attempting to put out the fire. He was knocked unconscious, but soon recovered, and is alright again now.

From the Trenches

I suppose we're a lot of heathens, Don't live on the angel plan, But we're sticking it here in the trenches And doing the best we can,

While preachers over in Canada, Who rave about kingdom-come, Ain't pleased with our ability And are wanting to stop our run.

Water, they say, would be better, Water? Great Scott! out here? We're up to our knees in water?

Do they think we're standing in beer? Oh! it sounds all right from a pulpit, Where you sit in a cushioned pew, But try four days in the trenches And see how water would do.

They haven't the heart to say "Thank you," For fighting in their behalf, Perhaps they object to our smoking, Perhaps it's a fault if we laugh! —G. Drewett.

William Emery, of Hillcrest, has arrived at Westville, N. S., on a visit to friends and relatives.

The Way it Usually Works

"What is that little boy crying about?" asked the benevolent old lady of the ragged boy.

"Dat other kid swiped his candy" was the response.

"But how is it you have the candy now?"

"Sure I got de candy now. I'm de little kid's lawyer."

Parody on 23rd Psalm

The Ford is an auto; I shall not want another.

It maketh me to lie down beneath it; it sootheth my soul.

It leadeth me into the paths of ridicule for its name's sake.

Yes, though I ride through the valleys, I am tossed up the hills.

For I fear much evil; thy rods and thy engine discomfort me.

I repair blow-outs in the presence of mine enemies.

Surely if this follows me all the days of my life I shall dwell in the bug-house forever.

—Burns.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DYSENTERY

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 135 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N.C. For sale by all dealers.

The Right Idea in Business

THE modern merchant filled with the modern spirit carries his business to his customers' homes; that is, he doesn't wait to be found out or risk the danger of not being found out.

The best carrier of businesses to customers' homes is the newspaper. This Weekly Paper can carry every business in The Pass to the homes of this community with ease and without confusion—the business of grocers, dry goods men, hardware dealers, clothiers, stationers, boot and shoe houses, druggists, jewellers, furniture dealers, fruiterers, butchers, grain, and feed stores and every other class of business.

William Mauser, who operates a jitney bus between Bellevue and Coleman was brought before Inspector Janet on Saturday on the charge of running his car without having a provincial license. Mauser produced copy of a communication which had been sent to the provincial secretary applying for the necessary application form which could not be procured locally. This letter had also been preceded a month or so by a similar request, but the necessary document never arrived. A fine of $9.00, including costs, was imposed on Mauser, who paid the amount and has since been permitted to operate his car without a license. What sort of business is this?

It was Rev. W. T. Young, of Frank, who married the Spring Creek couple last week, and not Rev. Galbraith as stated in our last issue.

Up to date Canadians have made private donations of 1600 machine guns for the use of our volunteer battalions. The amount of money represented by these patriotic subscriptions is $1,600,000. The record is a splendid one, but the list is not yet closed by any means. The little town of Frank, with a population of not more than 400 people, donated a machine gun. If every four hundred of Canada's population contributed a gun about 18,250 guns instead of 1500 would be placed at the disposal of our volunteers—practically a gun for every two men in active service.
